Dear loving Benefactor,

Warm and loving greetings from Br. Lawrence Hasdak,

I am writing this letter expressing words of sentiments of gratitude to you. I Hope this will find you in your good health of mind and body.

Long journey begins with a single step. So, a journey of my life as a disciple of Christ is in the process. I was almost for twelve years spent in different seminaries for formation. Finally for Theology course I was sent to Morning Star College, Kolkata. I have just completed my theological studies and chosen as a candidate for diaconate and priestly ordination thereafter. Now within a couple of days I will be returning to my Diocese, Raiganj, where I will be ordained as a deacon then. My priestly ordination will be later in the year 2022. As a Priest I have lots of dreams to accomplish for my diocese and my mission which will be entrusted to me by my Bishop. I hope and pray that good Lord will surely guide and lead me in my mission ahead.

I was privileged to be the part of different institutions wherever I went and I could gain lots of wisdom for my life. In fact different institutions and the seminaries helped me to acquire the varieties of taste of knowledge for my life. Similarly, various activities and the facilities brought an open field from where I could grasp all the opportunities and prepare myself as an effective Church leader for the future.

I come from a small Tribal village called as Sitontola, Uttar Dinajpur district in West Bengal. My father, Abraham Hasdak is a farmer and my mother Martina Soren is a house wife. Altogether we are four brothers and one sister.

Today what I am and how have I grown as a fully human person, it is all because of people like you who rendered selfless help and support. I am grateful for all the sacrifices that you have done for my growth. Your concern for my life is greatly appreciated. God will reward you because "In the Lord your labor is not in vain (1 Cor. 15:58)." I am sure that God will definitely reward you for everything that you have done for me.

Please continue to remember me in your prayers so that I may be an effective and productive in my mission wherever I am sent. I assure you of my prayers. May the good Lord bless you and all your family members.

Once again a Big Thank you for everything.

With love and prayerful wishes

Thank You so much.

Yours in Christ
Br. Lawrence Hasdak
